Facebook with Family Tuesday, February 14, 12:00-2:30pm

Due to overwhelming demand in January, the Facebook class will be offered again this month at Happy Diners. Facebook can be a great way to connect with your family, whether they are spread across the country, or are right in town. For many people, it is the way they share their photos, stories and lives. With increasing numbers of older adults using the site, it can also be a great way to renew contact with old friends. In this free class, instructor Trena Winans-Bagnall will walk you through starting an account, some basics about security and tips on finding your Facebook friends. In addition, a Facebook check-up class will be offered on February 27 to meet in the computer lab to get comfortable with the program and address any problems. Call 835-6891 to make your reservations for these classes. Happy Diners
